RULE 4 – Executive Board of Directors

The Republican Party Palm Beach County's Board of Directors shall include the following positions:

1. Chairman (Voting)
2. Vice Chairman (Voting)
3. Secretary (Voting)
4. Treasurer (Voting)
5. State Committeeman (Voting)
6. State Committeewoman (Voting)
7. Chairman of the Council of Republican Club Presidents (Voting)
8. General Counsel (Non-Voting)
9. Parliamentarian (Non-Voting)

Additionally, the Board of Directors will also be comprised of no less than 4 and no more than 6 additional voting members whose position titles and responsibilities will be at the discretion of the Chairman. The Board of Directors may also include up to 2 additional non-voting positions. The staff of the Republican Party Palm Beach County will serve on the Board of Directors, at the discretion of the Chairman, as non-voting members.

The Chairman shall appoint the members to all voting positions of the Board of Directors not specifically cited in this rule and those members shall take office and have full voting rights once appointed. Members appointed by the Chairman are subject to confirmation at the Meeting of the Republican Executive Committee immediately following their appointment.

The terms of all the members of the Executive Board of Directors shall expire at the natural end of the Chairman's term.

Any appointed voting member of the Board of Directors who is absent for 3 meetings in a calendar year will be automatically removed from the Executive Board of Directors.

RULE 5 – Rule of Procedure for Filling REC Vacancies

Prior to filling a vacancy for voting member on the County Executive Committee, the prospective member shall complete an application for membership and must sign the RPOF Loyalty Oath and the Palm Beach County Candidate Loyalty Oath. The application must be accompanied by the written recommendation of a sponsor and seconder who are members of the Executive Committee. It is recommended that the application be filed at the office of the Palm Beach County Republican Executive Committee prior to the next REC meeting, but applications may also be accepted at the next REC meeting. The application must be accompanied by the signed loyalty oaths. NO vacancy may be filled unless the vacancy exists, at the time of and is announced in, the call of the meeting. Per the RPOF, applicants must attend two meetings. At the first meeting that an applicant attends they will not be voted on. At the second meeting that an applicant attends, the applicant should attend training and then be voted on at that meeting. An applicant must attend two out of three consecutive REC meetings or they must re-apply.

RULE 6 – Applicant/New Member Information Session

Any person applying to be a member of the Republican Executive Committee of Palm Beach County should attend the Applicant/New Member Information Session before the second meeting that they attend. If an applicant is reapplying within six (6) months of termination of prior service on the REC, this recommendation will be waived.

RULE 7 – Attendance Requirements for All REC Applicants

Any person applying to be a member of the Palm Beach County Republican Executive Committee must be in attendance at the meeting he or she will be voted on by the REC. The applicant will need to sign in on an applicants' sign-in sheet to verify his or her attendance. If an applicant does not sign in and attend the REC meeting, he or she will not be voted on by the Executive Committee.

RULE 8 – Rule of Procedure for Conducting Elections to Fill REC Vacancies

Voting to fill REC vacancies shall be by ballot distributed at the sign-in table. Once a meeting of the REC has been convened and a quorum established, the Chairman will appoint a teller committee to collect the ballots, count the votes, and announce the results to the membership for any contested election. In the event there is but one candidate to fill a vacancy, the ballot may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the membership present and eligible to vote.

RULE 9 – Rule of Procedure for Resolutions

Resolution: A resolution is a statement expressing the opinion, will, position or intent of the REC on an issue of public policy external to the REC.

- a) Resolution on Prior Notice

A proposed resolution shall be submitted to the Executive Director or his/her designee for review prior to 60 days of the REC Meeting.

The Board of Directors shall then approve the resolution for placement on the REC's next agenda as a resolution on prior notice, or disapprove it. A Resolution not approved by the Board shall render the proposed resolution to be treated as if it were made without prior notice when presented at the next REC meeting.

A resolution approved by the Board of Directors shall be placed on the next possible agenda of the REC and circulated with the call of the meeting. The resolutions shall be adopted only upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of those in attendance when there is at least a quorum present.

If the proposed Resolution has any amendment passed at the meeting, this amendment shall render the proposed resolution to be treated as if it were made without prior notice.

b) Resolutions without Prior Notice:

A proposed resolution may be submitted in writing at any regular meeting without prior notice; the presenter shall provide adequate copies of the written proposed resolution for all voting members in attendance to receive a copy. The REC must then approve debate and potential consideration of the proposed Resolution vote by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those REC Members in attendance.

If the REC approves consideration and debate regarding the proposed Resolution, then approval of the proposed Resolution shall require 2/3 approval of the entire committee.

c) Resolutions in Conflict with the Party Platform:

No resolution, which conflicts with the Platform of the Republican Party of Florida or of the National Republican Party, may come before the Palm Beach County Republican Executive Committee.

RULE 10 – Rule of Procedure for Amending the Rules, Policies and Procedures

a) Amendments Proposed by the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall propose amendments to the Rules, Policies & Procedures to the REC as the Board deems necessary. All proposed amendments by the Board shall be placed on the next possible meeting agenda of the REC and circulated with the call of the meeting. The amendment to the Rules shall be adopted by a majority vote of the full REC.

b) Amendments Proposed by REC Members with Prior Notice

A proposed amendment to the Rules, Policies & Procedures made by a member of the REC shall be submitted to the Executive Director or his/her designee for review and shall be acted on by the Board of Directors within 60 days. The REC Member presenting the rule change must be given the opportunity to present either verbally or written the rational for the rule change to the Board of Directors before a vote on said change.

The Board of Directors shall then approve the amendment for placement on the REC's next meeting agenda as an amendment with prior notice, or disapprove it. If the amendment is disapproved, it shall not be placed on the agenda but may come before the REC as an amendment without prior notice.

An amendment approved by the Board of Directors shall be placed on the next possible meeting agenda of the REC and circulated with the call of the meeting. The amendment shall be adopted by a majority vote of the full REC. Any motions passed at the meeting of the proposed amendment that substantially or materially alters the object or purpose of the amendment shall render the proposed amendment to be treated as if it were made without prior notice.

c) Amendments without Prior Notice

A proposed amendment to the Rule, Policies & Procedures may be submitted in writing at any regular meeting of the REC without prior notice; the presenter shall provide adequate copies of the written proposed amendment for all persons in attendance to receive a copy. Passage of such proposed amendment shall require the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the REC Members present and voting, and shall be the last item under new business on the agenda.

RULE 11 – Endorsements

The Republican Executive Committee may endorse, certify or recommend a Republican candidate in a contested Republican primary, or a registered Republican in a nonpartisan election, or a local Unitary Special/General Election, by either of the two following methods: (1) Upon the affirmative vote of not less than 60% of the County Executive Committee present and voting at a duly called meeting complying with notice requirements set forth below, provided that the number voting to endorse represents a majority of the full committee, or (2) upon the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of those present and voting at such meeting, provided that a quorum is present at the time the vote is taken. Each announced candidate shall be likewise notified that a vote on endorsement is to be taken and that he or she will be allowed to speak at such meeting in support of or opposition to any proposed endorsement, certification, or recommendation for an office for which he or she is a candidate.

There shall be no less than ten days written notice to each member of the Executive Committee of any meeting at which the vote is to be taken. The written notice shall inform each member of the time, date, place of meeting, and that a vote will be taken to endorse, certify, screen or otherwise recommend one or more Republican candidates for nomination for election. A copy of the notice of the meeting shall be mailed by the County Chairman or other appropriate officer to: Republican Party of Florida, P.O. Box 311, Tallahassee, Florida, 32302.

RULE 12 -- ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES

- Ensure that the Chairman has signed contractor-engagement agreements for all PBC GOP staffing personnel and contractors. This does not include vendors.
- Personal charges should not be made on PBC GOP credit cards.
- The two PBC GOP credit cards will maintain the current $2,500 limit.
- Two signatures are required on all checks. All four officers of the REC (Chairman, Vice Chair, Secretary and Treasurer) shall be signatories on the bank account. However, at least one of the signatures on every check shall be either the Chairman or the Treasurer.
- Any expenditure in excess of $2,500 must be approved by the Board. Such approval can be by Board vote via e-mail or teleconference.

RULE 13 --UPDATING THESE RULES AND PROCEDURES

These Rules and Procedures are to be updated as changes are warranted. Any changes could be included as Addenda, along with the date they were enacted.
